

Please put the provision into force mandating Cell Phone number portability. I would change carriers if I didn't have to start a new number as I have it on my business cards. Don't be fooled by Verizon's rhetoric - people do want to be able to change carriers and keep the same number.